CHRISTMAS NEWSLETTER

Christmas Thoughts from the Administration

At this time of the year, we often hear about Christmas “magic” and that “special feeling” we get. We believe there was a Christmas “miracle” that happened many years ago in a stable. God himself became a baby named Jesus. He was born to die for our sins, so we could have eternal life. When we accept His gift of salvation, He puts His love in our hearts. Then we will have that “special feeling” and want to share it with others this time of year. That’s what Christmas is about. Share His love with someone today. Merry Christmas to each of our CAA families!

God has blessed CAA and allowed us to grow in students and staff. We are expanding our Admin Offices and will be moving into our new facilities January 2019.

A new feature available for your convenience, is Recurring payments. Please call or email the office to set up automatically recurring payments.

Are you looking for something to keep your student academically engaged during the winter months? Try a virtual exploration! Google Virtual Arts & Culture has a wide array of areas to explore, including major cities, paintings, videos, music, and museums all around the world. The link below will take you on your first tour, the British Music Collection: Christmas Exhibition. It explores some of the less known Christmas carols, pictures of peace from WW I on Christmas Day, a fun old fashioned Christmas game and more. Click on this link to take you on your own virtual exploration without leaving the comfort & warmth of your home.
